

Public notification register¹ - from 28 November 2023 for a rolling 12-month period

This register includes any public data breach notifications that NSW Ombudsman has issued during this period.

A 'public data breach notification' is a notification made to the public at large rather than a direct notification to an identified individual.

| Date of breach | Description of breach | How breach occurred | Type of breach | Type of personal information subject of breach | Amount of time personal information disclosed | Action taken or planned to ensure personal information is secure or to control or mitigate harm done | Recommendations about steps the individual should take in response | Privacy complaints and internal review information | Name of agency or agencies subject to breach | Contact details at agency subject of breach | Date the public notification was published | Link to full public notification |
|----------------|-----------------------|---------------------|----------------|--|---|--|--|--|--|---|--|----------------------------------|
|----------------|-----------------------|---------------------|----------------|--|---|--|--|--|--|---|--|----------------------------------|

N/A - There have been no notifications made in the previous 12-months.

¹ Per section 59P of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW).